FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

As we see in today's gospel, Jesus uses his authority to liberate people from the evil forces that dominate their lives and to bring them the blessings of health and healing, freedom, and hope. He came, as he himself states, 'to serve not to be served, and to give his life for us' (Mk 10:45). And he wants us to imitate his example. 'You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them... Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant' (Mk 10:42-43). By virtue of our baptism, all of us share in the authority of Jesus, in his prophetic, priestly, and kingly mission, even if we may have no official leadership position in the Church. And we are empowered and summoned to use this authority to serve others, as Jesus did. Fr. Eric

Como vemos en el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús usa su autoridad para liberar a las personas de las fuerzas del mal que dominan sus vidas y para brindarles las bendiciones de la salud y la curación, libertad y esperanza. Vino, como él mismo afirma, "para servir, no para ser servido, y para dar su vida por nosotros" (Mc 10,45). Y quiere que imitemos su ejemplo. "Como ustedes saben, los que se consideran jefes de las naciones actúan como dictadores, y los que ocupan cargos abusan de su autoridad. Pero no será así entre ustedes" (Mc 10,42-43). En virtud de nuestro bautismo, todos compartimos la autoridad de Jesús, su misión profética, sacerdotal y real, incluso si no tenemos una posición oficial de liderazgo en la Iglesia. Y estamos empoderados y convocados a usar esta autoridad para servir a los demás, como lo hizo Jesús. P. Eric
