FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

In the first reading from Jeremiah, God speaks against the leaders who mislead His people. These leaders have not cared for the flock and have led them astray. God promises to step in and lead His people Himself, ensuring they are safe and well-guided. Friends, God's promise is one of hope. That is, God Himself, will appoint new leaders who will be wise and just. This assures us that God is always looking out for our well-being and will never abandon us.

God's care for us is constant. Even when human leaders fail, God's leadership is perfect. He will always guide us on the right path and protect us.

In the Gospel of Mark, we see Jesus and His apostles seeking rest. But the crowd follows them, longing for guidance and teaching. Jesus, moved by compassion, teaches them that they are like sheep without a shepherd. Brothers and sisters, Jesus' compassion is a model for us. Jesus sees the needs of the people and responds with love. He teaches us that true leadership involves caring for others and addressing their needs.

As we reflect on the readings of this weekend, we see God's promise to lead, Christ's unifying sacrifice, and Jesus' compassionate leadership. These readings remind us of God's constant care and the unity and peace we find in Christ. God Bless! Fr. Eric

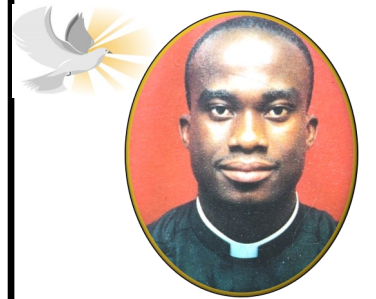

En la primera lectura de Jeremías, Dios habla en contra de los líderes que engañan a su pueblo. Estos líderes no se han preocupado por el rebaño y lo han extraviado. Dios promete intervenir y guiar a su pueblo Él mismo se asegura de que esté seguro y bien guiado. Amigos, la promesa de Dios es de esperanza. Es decir, Dios mismo nombrará nuevos líderes que serán sabios y justos. Dios nos asegura que siempre está velando por nuestro bienestar y nunca nos abandonará.

Dios nos cuida constantemente. Incluso cuando los líderes humanos fracasan, el liderazgo de Dios es perfecto. Él siempre nos guiará por el camino correcto y nos protegerá.

En el Evangelio de Marcos vemos a Jesús y sus apóstoles buscando descanso. Pero la multitud los sigue, anhelando que los guien y que los enseñen. Jesús, movido por la compasión, les enseña que son como ovejas sin pastor. Hermanos y hermanas, la compasión de Jesús es un modelo para nosotros. Jesús ve las necesidades de la gente y responde con amor. Nos enseña que el verdadero liderazgo implica cuidar a los demás y abordar sus necesidades.

Al reflexionar sobre las lecturas de este fin de semana, vemos la promesa de Dios de liderar, el sacrificio unificador de Cristo y el liderazgo compasivo de Jesús. Estas lecturas nos recuerdan el cuidado constante de Dios y la unidad y la paz que encontramos en Cristo. ¡Dios los bendiga!
