SUMMER MISSIONARY (COLLEGE STUDENTS) MISIONERO DE VERANO (ESTUDIANTES UNIVERSITARIOS)

"Summer Missions" is the umbrella term for our three major programs in the summer; Prayer and Action, Totus Tuus, and Camp Cristo Rey. All three offerings are staffed by college students. After the application/interview process, a student will be placed on a team, trained at the very beginning of the summer, and then work as an employee of the diocese from roughly the beginning of June until the end of July, with a break in the middle for Independence Day. There are plenty of other details, so feel free to contact me with any questions you may have!

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

On the 5th Sunday of Easter, we are reminded of the importance of supporting each other in our faith journeys. The early Church, as seen in Acts, shows us how believers helped one another. Paul and Barnabas encouraged the new Christians to stay strong in their faith despite challenges. This support was crucial in building a strong and united community of believers. Friends, Jesus' command to love one another, highlighted in the Gospel, is central to Christian life. Jesus taught this lesson at a time when He knew He would be betrayed. Instead of focusing on His own troubles, Jesus emphasized the importance of loving others. This teaches us that love should be the foundation of our relationships, even in difficult times. Helping and supporting one another in our faith journeys means being there for each other through both good and bad times. It means offering a listening ear, a helping hand, and a kind word. By doing this, we follow Jesus' example and build a community rooted in love and care. God Bless! Fr. Eric

Announcement

I will be taking my annual vacation from May 26th to July 1st. I will be going to my home country, Ghana, Africa. While I am away, Fr. Benjamin Martin will be covering for the Weekend Masses. Deacon Apolonio will celebrate communion services in Ulysses on Tuesdays and expose the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays. Keep me in your prayers!

El Quinto Domingo de Pascua, recordamos la importancia de apoyarnos mutuamente en nuestro camino de fe. La Iglesia primitiva, como se ve en los Hechos, nos muestra cómo los creyentes se ayudaban mutuamente. Pablo y Bernabé animaron a los nuevos cristianos a mantenerse firmes en su fe a pesar de los desafíos. Este apoyo fue crucial para construir una comunidad de creyentes fuerte y unida.

Amigos, el mandato de Jesús de amarnos unos a otros, destacado en el Evangelio, es fundamental para la vida cristiana. Jesús enseñó esta lección en un momento en que sabía que sería traicionado. En lugar de centrarse en sus propios problemas, Jesús enfatizó la importancia de amar a los demás. Esto nos enseña que el amor debe ser la base de nuestras relaciones, incluso en tiempos difíciles. Ayudarnos y apoyarnos mutuamente en nuestro camino de fe significa estar presentes el uno para el otro, tanto en los buenos como en los malos momentos. Significa ofrecer un oído atento, una mano amiga y una palabra amable. Al hacer esto, seguimos el ejemplo de Jesús y construimos una comunidad arraigada en el amor y el cuidado. ¡Que Dios los bendiga! Padre. Eric
