FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

The first reading for this weekend mass is from the book of Genesis. The reading illustrates the hospitality of Abraham, our father in Faith. It describes how he welcomed three visitors into his tent with great kindness and generosity. On seeing them, Abraham runs out to greet them and bows down in respect before them. Then he offers them water to wash their feet and invites them to rest while he and his wife, Sarah, prepare a lavish meal for them. One of these visitors happens to be the Lord himself and Abraham's hospitality is rewarded with the good news that his wife, Sarah, will bear him a son: 'I shall visit you again next year without fail, and your wife will then have a son' (Gen 18:10).

In welcoming strangers, Abraham and Sarah met their Lord and were abundantly blessed. In reminding us of the importance of hospitality, the author of the Letter to the Hebrews surely had in mind the example of Abraham when he wrote: 'Do not neglect hospitality, for through it, some have unknowingly entertained angels' (Hebrews 13:2). Like Abraham, we should be willing to offer our best to others.

Martha and Mary also in the Gospel offer hospitality to Jesus in their home. Martha is sometimes seen as not paying the right kind of attention to Jesus. However, she was doing what was expected of her by preparing and serving. Yet, she failed to recognize the holy presence in her home and that Mary was offering hospitality by listening to Jesus. Martha's actions were important, but without recognizing Jesus, they were just tasks. Mary chose to sit and listen to Jesus, showing the importance of taking time to know Him.

Friends, our actions, like Martha's, are vital in serving others. However, if we do not also take time to learn from Jesus, our works can miss the deeper connection to our faith. Mary's choice to listen reminds us that listening is essential in our journey with Christ. May the Lord help us to be hospitable like Abraham, serve like Martha, and listen like Mary. God Bless! Fr. Eric

La 1ra lectura de la misa de este fin de semana es del libro del Génesis. La lectura ilustra la hospitalidad de Abraham, nuestro padre en la fe. Describe cómo recibió a tres visitantes en su tienda con gran bondad y generosidad. Al verlos, Abraham corre a saludarlos y se inclina con respeto ante ellos. Luego les ofrece agua para lavarse los pies y los invita a descansar mientras él y su esposa, Sara, les preparan una abundante comida. Uno de estos visitantes resulta ser el Señor mismo, y la hospitalidad de Abraham se ve recompensada con la buena noticia de que su esposa, Sara, le dará un hijo: «Volveré a visitarte el año que viene sin falta, y tu esposa tendrá un hijo» (Gn 18,10).

Al recibir a extraños, Abraham y Sara se encontraron con su Señor y fueron abundantemente bendecidos. Al recordarnos la importancia de la hospitalidad, el autor de la Carta a los Hebreos seguramente tenía en mente el ejemplo de Abraham cuando escribió: «No descuiden la hospitalidad, porque por ella algunos, sin saberlo, hospedaron ángeles» (Hebreos 13:2). Al igual que Abraham, debemos estar dispuestos a ofrecer lo mejor de nosotros a los demás.

También, Marta y María en el Evangelio, son hospitalarias al recibir a Jesús en su hogar. A veces se considera que Marta no le presta la debida atención a Jesús. Sin embargo, ella estaba haciendo lo que se esperaba de ella para entenderlo. Sin embargo, no reconoció su santa presencia, ni que María era hospitalaria al escuchar a Jesús. Las acciones de Marta eran importantes, pero sin reconocer a Jesús, eran solo tareas. María eligió sentarse y escuchar a Jesús, mostrando la importancia de tomarse un tiempo para conocerlo.

Amigos, nuestras acciones, como las de Marta, son vitales para servir a los demás. Sin embargo, si no nos tomamos el tiempo para aprender de Jesús, nuestras obras pueden perder la conexión más profunda con nuestra fe. La decisión de María de escuchar nos recuerda que escuchar es esencial en nuestro camino con Cristo. Que el Señor nos ayude a ser hospitalarios como Abraham, servir como Marta y escuchar como María. ¡Que Dios los bendiga! Padre Eric
