FAITH GROUP AT ST. BERNADETTE

On November 22 Sr. Rose Mary Stein is going to visit St. Bernadette parish to help parishioners in forming a Small Faith Group. At her initial visit, she would like to meet with at least five or more adults –women, men or both. Sharing one's life in a small group helps build a community and belonging within the Parish. It fosters personal growth, deepens faith, strengthens connections with others and develops real friendships with Christ. A small Faith Group also provides a structured and scheduled time to focus our loves on God. Sr. Rose Mary will be accompanied by several lay people who will share their personal experiences. Please sign the sheet on the bulletin board so we know if there is enough interest.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

In the Gospel reading for this 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus tells a parable about a Pharisee and a tax collector. The Pharisee stands confidently, thanking God that he is better than others. He lists his good deeds, believing they make him righteous. The tax collector, however, stands at a distance, unwilling to lift his eyes. He simply prays for mercy. Jesus says it is the tax collector who goes home justified.

Friends, the gospel reading brings to mind how people often see holiness. Thus, the Pharisee follows the law and does good works, but his pride separates him from God. The tax collector, despite his sins, knows he needs God's mercy. He does not try to prove his worth. He simply asks for forgiveness.

The lesson is clear. No one earns God's favor through good deeds alone. It is not about comparing ourselves to others or thinking we are better. It is about recognizing our need for God and trusting in His mercy. The Pharisee looked good on the outside but was full of pride. The tax collector was honest about his sins and humbled himself. Jesus says that is the kind of person God lifts up. God Bless! Fr. Eric

En el Evangelio de este 30.º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, Jesús cuenta una parábola sobre un fariseo y un publicano. El fariseo permanece de pie, confiado, agradeciendo a Dios ser superior a los demás. Enumera sus buenas obras, creyendo que lo hacen justo. El publicano, sin embargo, permanece a la distancia, sin querer levantar la vista. Simplemente ruega por misericordia. Jesús dice que es el publicano quien regresa a casa justificado.

Amigos, el Evangelio nos recuerda cómo la gente suele percibir la santidad. Así, el fariseo sigue la ley y hace buenas obras, pero su orgullo lo separa de Dios. El publicano, a pesar de sus pecados, sabe que necesita la misericordia de Dios. No intenta demostrar su valor. Simplemente pide perdón.

La lección es clara: nadie se gana el favor de Dios solo con buenas obras. No se trata de compararnos con los demás ni de creernos mejores. Se trata de reconocer nuestra necesidad de Dios y confiar en su misericordia. El fariseo parecía bueno por fuera, pero estaba lleno de orgullo. El recaudador de impuestos fue honesto con sus pecados y se humilló. Jesús dice que ese es el tipo de persona que Dios exalta. ¡Que Dios los bendiga! Padre Eric
