Paula Segovia –I am writing to share a bit about my background and my journey in faith and teaching.
By way of introduction, I am Paula Segovia. I have been married to Cesar Segovia for 29 years, and we have five children—three sons and two daughters—as well as seven grandchildren.
I started teaching 4th grade in September of 1998. In 2008, I began teaching First Communion classes, and I am still doing so today. I truly love teaching about God's great love and continuing to learn myself.
At the age of 15, I went to the Cursillo and have been as active as possible for these past 32 years as a cursillista. I participate as much as I can in all church activities, including the posadas, novenas to Our Lady of Guadalupe, Ultreyas, the month of May, and I am also a lector..

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time — (Matthew 14:13–21) The feeding of the five thousand
Reflection: Faced with a crowd’s hunger, Jesus multiplies a few loaves and fish to feed thousands. The miracle shows God’s compassion for our concrete needs and the power of small gifts placed in Christ’s hands. We also see a model of communal sharing: the disciples gather what is offered and distribute it so none go hungry. The Eucharist continues this pattern — Christ gives himself so we may be nourished and sent to share with others.
Pastoral challenge: Bring a small, practical gift this week — your time, food, or a listening ear — and share it with someone in need.

Mateo 14,13–21 — La multiplicación de los panes
Reflexión: Ante la multitud hambrienta, Jesús multiplica unos pocos panes y peces para saciar a miles. El milagro revela la compasión de Dios por nuestras necesidades concretas y el poder de los pequeños dones ofrecidos a Cristo. Vemos también un ideal de compartir comunitario: los discípulos reúnen lo que se da y lo reparten para que nadie pase hambre. La Eucaristía continúa este gesto: Cristo se da para que seamos nutridos y enviados a compartir.
Desafío pastoral: Lleva esta semana un regalo pequeño y práctico —tu tiempo, comida o una escucha— y compártelo con alguien necesitado.

We thank our Totus Tuus teachers; Daniel Ordóñez, Natalie Theubet, Jonathan Lu, Hope White, Michaela Hubbellr, priest Fr. Alex for bringing the love of the Lord and the beauty of our faith to the hearts of our children and youth!
Finally, and most importantly, we are grateful to our Lord Jesus and His Mother for the blessings of the week.
