FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

Matthew 13:1-23 (15th Sunday in Ordinary Time)
Jesus’s parable of the Sower reminds us that God generously scatters seeds of life and love everywhere. What matters most is the soil of our hearts. Some hearts are distracted, some hardened, some shallow — and some are ready to receive and bear abundant fruit. This week, ask yourself: what kind of soil is my heart? Ten it with prayer, honest repentance, and acts of kindness. Little gestures of love and truth help the seed grow. Trust God’s patient care — with a receptive heart, even small seeds become a harvest.

La parábola del sembrador nos recuerda que Dios derrama semillas de vida y amor sin medida. Lo que importa es la tierra del corazón. Hay corazones distraídos, endurecidos o superficiales, y otros que se abren y dan fruto abundante. Pregúntate esta semana: ¿qué tipo de tierra es mi corazón? Cuídalo con oración, arrepentimiento sincero y gestos de bondad. Las pequeñas acciones de amor y verdad ayudan a que la semilla crezca. Confía en la paciencia de Dios: con un corazón receptivo, hasta una semilla pequeña produce cosecha.
