Loving Creator, You formed the earth and blessed it with rivers, seas, and clouds. Look kindly upon our land in its thirst. Send us the gift of gentle rain, that the soil may be renewed, the crops flourish, and all creatures may find refreshment. Through Christy our Lord. Amen

VOCATION COMMITTEE RECOGNITION OF VOLUNTEERS Reconocimiento de Voluntarios

Berenice Garcia – I have been married to Esteban Garcia for 21 years, and we have three children: Stephanie (18), Sebastian (16), and Samuel (10). I have lived in Ulysses for 19 years. I am involved in various parish ministries: Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays, and the Guadalupanas group, where we pray the Rosary during several months of the year, as well as at funerals and novenarios. After attending the baptismal preparation classes for Samuel, I felt a calling to become an instructor for these classes; I believe I have been teaching them for nine years now. This year, I decided to become a Proclaimer of the Word at the Spanish Mass, and I also serve on the committee for the construction of the new parish hall. I serve my community with love, striving to set an example for my children and seeking to give back a little of my time and talents to God in gratitude for so many blessings.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Matthew 13:24-43)

Jesus teaches with images we all know: a field with both wheat and weeds, a tiny mustard seed, and a bit of yeast transforming dough. These parables remind us that God’s reign grows quietly and sometimes confusingly among what is good and what is harmful. We are not called to root out others – that work belongs to the harvest – but to tend our own hearts so that God’s seed can take deeper root. Small, faithful choices (kind words, honest work, acts of mercy) are like yeast: they slowly change the dough of our lives and our communities. This week, choose one small habit that will help the Gospel grow in you – and be patient with the slow, steady work of grace. Fr. Alex

XVI Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario (Mateo 13, 24-43)

Jesús usa imágenes muy cotidianas: un campo con trigo y cizaña, una semilla de mostaza y un poco de levadura que transforma la masa. Estas parábolas nos recuerdan que el Reino de Dios crece de manera callada y, a veces, entre lo bueno y lo dañino. No estamos llamados a arrancar a los demás –esa tarea será del tiempo de la siega– sino a cuidar nuestro propio corazón para que la semilla de Dios eche raíces más profundas. Las pequeñas decisiones fieles (una palabra amable, trabajo honesto, gestos de misericordia) son como la levadura: cambian poco a poco la masa de nuestra vida y de la comunidad. Esta semana, escoge un hábito pequeño que ayude al Evangelio a crecer en ti y ten paciencia con el trabajo lento y constante de la gracia. Padre Alex
