VOCATION COMMITTEE RECOGNITION OF VOLUNTEERS
Reconocimiento de Voluntarios

Berenice García – Llevo 21 años casada con Esteban García y tenemos tres hijos: Stephanie (18), Sebastián (16) y Samuel (10). Resido en Ulysses desde hace 19 años.
Participo en varios ministerios parroquiales: la Adoración Eucarística los jueves y el grupo de las Guadalupanas, donde rezamos el Rosario durante varios meses del año, así como en funerales y novenarios. Tras asistir a las clases de preparación bautismal para Samuel, sentí el llamado a convertirme en instructora de dichas clases; creo que ya llevo nueve años impartiéndolas. Este año decidí ser proclamadora de la Palabra en la Misa en español y también formo parte del comité para la construcción del nuevo salón parroquial. Sirvo a mi comunidad con amor, esforzándome por dar ejemplo a mis hijos y buscando devolver a Dios un poco de mi tiempo y mis talentos en agradecimiento por tantas bendiciones.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR | DESDE EL ESCRITORIO DEL PARRACO

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time — Matthew 13:44–52 The hidden treasure, the pearl of great price, the dragnet. Jesus invites us to see the value of God’s kingdom above all else. The kingdom is like a treasure discovered in a field and a pearl worth selling everything to possess. It calls for a decisive response: to prioritize God’s reign in our hearts and in our daily choices. The final images — the sorting of fish — remind us that God’s kingdom includes patient, discerning care for all people as we welcome what is good and work to transform what needs change.
Pastoral challenge: This week, consider what you would give more time, attention, or resources to so that God’s kingdom grows in your life.

El tesoro escondido, la perla preciosa, la red de pesca. Evangelio: Mateo 13,44–52
Jesús nos invita a reconocer el valor supremo del Reino de Dios. El Reino es como un tesoro hallado en un campo o una perla por la que vale la pena venderlo todo. Requiere una respuesta decidida: poner el reinado de Dios en el centro de nuestro corazón y de nuestras decisiones cotidianas. Las imágenes finales — la criba de los peces — nos recuerdan que el Reino implica cuidado paciente y discernimiento para acoger lo bueno y transformar lo que necesita cambio.
Desafío pastoral: Esta semana, piensa en qué darás más tiempo, atención o recursos para que el Reino de Dios crezca en tu vida.
